Fourth of July.

The arrangements are now fully completed by the Committee of arrangements to celebrate this memorable day in honor of our glorious Independence in Batavia and the large show-bills got up in colors, are now posted in every public place. This is as it should be. And it should rouse the slumbering energies of all who love Freedom, and all should turn out clad with the fires of '76, inherited from the Father's of those times, and do honor with a union of hearts, in making gala the day that is memorable throughout our fair Union, and reverted to with veneration in every land.

The Programme for the occasion is simple, yet very appropriate; and we have no doubt will be enjoyed by our citizens generally and will afford us a pastime that we shall long remember with pleasing satisfaction. The Oration by Mr. Preston Esq., of Buffalo, alone will call an immense concourse of people. And it is hoped the masses will all be on hand, with Patriotic hearts to swell the throng and march to the sound of the Bagle and the beat of the Drum, amid the roar of the Fire arms, which will be loudly roaring and smoking every where on that glorious day, while the festive and jubilant spirit shall possess every true American.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE OF BUFFALO.

—We had the pleasure of seeing Mr. and Miss Richmond play "The Daughter of the Regiment" last evening at this favorite and popular place of amusement. Mr. and Miss R. play their parts in this celebrated piece better than any one else we have ever seen, and those who miss seeing this beautiful and accomplished actress and hearing her voice in some of music's sweetest strains, miss a treat that is rarely and very seldom enjoyed. Great credit is due Manager Carr for the pains he manifests in presenting to the people of Buffalo the best and most celebrated Star performers in the country as well as a choice and excellent stock company.

THE GOVERNOR AND SCIT.—The Buffalo Express says Gov. Morgan is accompanied by his lady; E. D. Morgan, Jr., and lady, Miss Dwight; Geo. Bliga, Esq., his private secretary, and lady; Geo. F. Newbitt, Engineer in Chief; Geo. F. Sherman, Inspector General, and Benj. Welch, Jr., Commissioner General. It may be proper to state, in this connection, that His Excellency made a short stop at Tonawanda, where the people paid their respects to him, as they did also at Lower and upper Black Rock. The ladies manifested their appreciation in a fine floral presentation at Black Rock. The engine and cars in which the Governor and suite came to the city were beautiful, decorated, as any one might know they would be if Job Collamer had anything to do with it.

THE PHILADELPHIA LEDGER SAYS THAT THE U. S. SHIPPING OFFICE IN THAT CITY HAS BEEN CROWDED FOR MORE THAN A WEEK PAST WITH MEN AND BOYS ANXIOUS TO ENLIST IN THE NAVAL SERVICE AS SEAMEN, ORDINARY SEAMEN, LANDSMEN AND BOYS.

The Davenport boys were arrested last week in Phoenix, Oswego Co., on a charge of exhibiting joggery without a license. They were tried before a Justice there, convicted and fined ten dollars and costs. The friends of the boys offered to pay the fine. This the boys objected to, and maintained that they were falsely accused, refused to pay the fine, being determined to defend themselves in another way through legal process. They therefore permitted themselves to be taken to Oswego, and incarcerated in jail, where they now are and have been several days.

RUSSIAN CIRCULAR ON THE WAR.—The Independence of Brussels publishes an analysis of an important circular which Prince Gortchakoff, Foreign Minister of Russia, has addressed to the diplomatic representatives of the Emperor at the several Courts of Germany. The Prince strongly recommends a policy of non-intervention as to this Italian war; and in very explicit terms denies the right of the German Confederation to interfere in the war which Austria has commenced respecting one of her non-Germanic possessions.

A DESPATCH FROM WASHINGTON TO NEW YORK STATES THAT THE ENTIRE AMOUNT NECESSARY FOR THE PURCHASE OF MR. VERNON HAS ALREADY BEEN SUBSCRIBED, BUT THE ASSOCIATION WILL NOT CLOSE THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST UNTIL A SUFFICIENT SUM WILL BE IN THEIR HANDS TO IMPROVE THE PROPERTY NOW IN A MOST NEGLECTED CONDITION.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—The Cincinnati Enquirer says, "Hon. Stephen A. Douglas arrived at this city Saturday evening on his way to Washington, where his family are. He is looking in excellent health. We are told that he was received along the road between Chicago and here with hearty impromptu greetings at every station."

BATAVIA, June 23, 1899

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir:—

Agreeably to an article published in your paper of June 20th, that it is the duty of the citizens of every community to support and maintain any paper conducted with ability and talent in the same locality and to communicate by correspondence to said paper any generous and laudable purpose that may transpire within its domain.

With such flattering encouragements before me I could not restrain the impulse of my feelings, as I therefore hasten to lay before you the few following remarks.

The subject of my sketch is not one who has figured conspicuously in the political strife of the day nor one who has added to the beauty and grandeur of our beautiful village by the immense outlay of money in the improvement of his mansion and public gardens. Oh, no, mine is of a far different mould, and it is no other than the silent benefactress of the poor—the accomplished and generous lady of Mr. Dean Richmond of this place.

Early this spring Mr. Richmond purchased a large quantity of flour to distribute among the poor, and what led me to make these remarks are: I saw a poor Irishman a few weeks since taking home a barrel of flour from the residence of Mr. Richmond. His joy was depicted in a very countenance and his own worn features wore that heartfelt gratitude so natural to an Irishman, and his admiration of the lady gradually rising, he gave vent to the following exclamation:

"Oh," he says, "may the Lord bless her. Bedad but she is the fine lady intirely, and may she never want for a bit or a sup will be the constant prayer of poor Patrick."

Where is the person who would not envy the position of that lady, when night approaches she can look back at the past day with gratifying results and retire perfectly conscious she has obeyed the commands of her Creator in relieving the suffering wails of his poor children, and those grateful beings, she has relieved by her charity, imploring the throne of mercy and good love to shower down his choicest blessings upon the head of their noble benefactress and when her final dissolution draws nigh she can descend the stream of life into eternity without a murmur to ruffle the placid current that bears her along, and I hope obtain that reward which her merit and charity entitle her to.

AN IRISHMAN.

The Philadelphia Ledger says that the U. S. Shipping office in that city has been crowded for more than a week past with men and boys anxious to enlist in the naval service as seamen, ordinary seamen, landsmen and boys.

In one of the counties of Wisconsin, it is said, there are three candidates for the Legislature: J. M. Root, Democrat, R. A. Hogg, Free Soil, and T. H. Dye, Whig. The electors can sing the song of "Root, Hogg or Dye," and take their choice.

It is said that the Secretary of War has refused to permit any more officers on leave to depart for Europe. It is feared they might join some of the armies, and in the event of being taken prisoners would lead to serious complications, which our government desires to avoid.

Ex-Gov. Seymour arrived in this city last evening, and took lodgings at the Clarendon. He is on his way to northern Iowa, to spend a month in business and recreation. His trip, however, is mostly on account of his health. He will remain in town until to-morrow morning.—Buff. Republic.

Gov. Morgan arrived in Buffalo by a special train from Niagara Falls this P. M. He was received at the depot by the Military and escorted to the Mansion House, and welcomed by the Mayor in a speech, to which he responded. Gov. M. will remain in Buffalo for several days as the guest of the city.

The Chess Match.—The final game between Mr. Murphy and Mr. Thompson, was played on Monday, at the New-York Club Rooms. At the termination, the whole score was: Murphy, 5; Thompson, 3; drawn, 3. This is considered one of Murphy's greatest victories, as he gave Mr. Thompson, one of the best players in the world, the odds of a knight.

NEWS SUMMARY

—Jenny Lind recently gave a chaste concert in London, which was not advertised, and only the aristocracy were admitted by special invitation. The receipts were $6,000. She was in full health, and sang with her old power.

—Prof. Lynn attempted a balloon ascension from Columbus, Tuesday. When about twenty feet up, the balloon burst and came down on a house.

—The wounded Austrians, picked up after the battle of Montevideo, had such a terror of the French, that they could only be induced to accept drink from the Sisters of Charity.

—Night before last, H. Van Dyck, J., aged 21 years, only son of Hon. Henry H. Van Dyck, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was thrown from a wagon while on his way home in Albany on a visit in the country, and probably fatally injured. His skull was fractured, and he has remained in a state of insensibility since the accident.

—Walter S. Sand, charged with the murder in Princess Anne's county, Va., mentioned yesterday, says that he and the deceased married sister; that both were farmers in Princess Anne's, and that the deed was in self-defence.

—The News says one day last week a mail dog left Milwaukee and trotted off through the towns of Oak Creek, Franklin, Caledonia and Raymond county, biting every thing that came in his way. One man in Franklin had over a thousand dollars worth of stock bitten, and one child was also severely wounded.

—J. In Cochran, M. C. will deliver an address before the Sigma Phi Fraternity, at Geneva N. Y., on Wednesday, the 29th inst.

—A Peoples' reading and Coffee Room is about to be opened in the midst of the dense and hells of the 4th ward, New York with a view of reforming the inhabitants. "A wful" Gardner, the reformed pugilist is to have charge.

—The Anglo-Saxon brings a report that Sir E. Grogan, one of the members for the city of Dublin, is to supersede Sir Edmund Head. The Canadians will rejoice at this change, as Sir Edmund is decidedly unpopular with the opposition.

—A Postmaster in Canada has been sued for $165, the amount of money in a letter which was stolen by his clerk. The Jury gave a verdict against him.

—A violent fall of hail took place in the neighborhood of Auburn day before yesterday, continuing half an hour, and extending over a space of about a mile in width. The hail stones were as large as marbles, and continued into large cakes of ice almost as soon as they fell. Windows were broken, and flowers etc., cut to pieces.

The St. Clairsville (Hoods) Gazette says that a vein of antimony, two feet thick, and almost solid, has been discovered within two miles of St. Clairsville. Antimony is one of the ingredients of type metal—worth about forty cents a pound—and it has been supposed I was only to be found in Germany.

It is said that the Secretary of War has refused to permit any more officers on leave to depart for Europe. It is feared they might join some of the armies, and in the event of being taken prisoners would lead to serious complications, which our government desires to avoid.

Ex-Gov. Seymour arrived in this city last evening, and took lodgings at the Clarendon. He is on his way to northern Iowa, to spend a month in business and recreation. His trip, however, is mostly on account of his health. He will remain in town until to-morrow morning.—Buff. Republic.

MRS. M. M. DENSLOW,

Having returned from New-York with her usual supply of New-Military Goods, is now ready to offer to the Public an assortment that will vie with the very best self-composed Stock ever before brought into a Batavia market.

Trust Mrs. D. did not go to Paris herself, but let her supply at Importing Houses in New-York, who have been long in the Trade and who sell to their old customers, who pay, at very reasonable rates, and Mrs. D. being one of that class of customers, is enabled to give her patrons the full benefit of a super-stock of Goods, purchased at those Houses, where fashionable Goods are to be had, at very small profits. The Public are invited to call and see, after seeking to be supplied elsewhere, among Importers, and she feels they will not be inclined to go empty away.

The cash trade is greatly desired—though responsible persons can have credit from four to six months.

She is fully prepared to execute all orders of this kind of dress, and to present with dispatch, and with all of the neatness, elegance and fashion, that her reputation has hitherto won her, any work trusted to her care. Her autumn prices are also made to suit the times and in view of the buyers.
